The desire for e railway troops is based upon e fact that supplies and reinrcements for Archangel during e winter have to go by railroad uth from Murmansk to a point ear the southern extreme of the hite Sea and that the operation this railroad is believed by the ritish to be absolutely necessary guarantee the prompt movent of reinforcements and supies to Archangel and the troops uth of Archangel. General liss also informs me that the ritish military authorities do ot feel apprehension as to the ilitary situation at Archangel.

"In accordance with the direcon of the president I transmit is information to the senate mmittee on military affairs."

Johnson's Statement.

After regarding Mr. Baker's tter Senator Johnson issued this atement:

"When on Dec. 12, last, we mmenced the agitation, for the turn of our troops in Russia for e sole purpose of saving the ves of American boys there, we d little sympathy and less supprt. After more than two months absolute silence on the part of e government the denial of inrmation of any sort either to ngress or the people comes toay's communication the first of s kind to the military committees, that our soldiers would be turned The strangness of this mmunication does not detract om my very great gratification. hen the subject was first roached in December, 5,000 Amrican boys apparently had been andoned and forgotten by their overnment. They were making valiant stand against overhelming odds in all of the severy of an arctic winter, suffering ntold privation and hardship nd fighting a war which had ever been sanctioned or declared y the American people. The overnment either would not, or ould not tell its policy or the activities of our soldiers. We are et in total ignorance; but it is gnificant that the letter today, reshadowing the early withrawal of our troops, demonstrates the utter lack of foundation of every statement by those who have sought to excuse this unjustifiable invasion.

"Finally in England a righteous public opinion compelled an alteration of England's course, and now apparently the course of America is changed. We cannot make whole again maimed nor bring back the ones who have been killed in difiance of the law and in violation of the constitution in this miserable misadventure in Russia, but thank God, American boys who are yet alive, are to be returned to us."

Senator Borah of Idaho, Republican, issued a statement declaring that to Senator Johnson was due the credit for the change of policy regarding Russia made by the American government."

Simmons Tells Of Conditions In Northern Russia

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Roger E. Simmons, who recently returned from a mission to Russia for the bureau of commerce today told the senate committee investigating lawless agitation in this country that if the American and allied forces were withdrawn from northern Russia the Bolsheviks would engage in one of the bloodiest massacres the world had ever seen.

The witness said he was surprised at the demands being made for the withdrawal of the American forces and told the committee that every time the American and allied soldiers had found it necessary to give up ground in northern Russia the Bolsheviki had swept in and inaugurated an orgy of murder of peaceful citizens. He said before leaving Archangel last Nov. 3, he had found t hat the American troops were well supplied and had performed great acts of heroism which yet remain to be told. All the Russians in the northern district were sympathetic with the allied forces, he said and were praying they would not be removed. Evidence which he said showed that Germany was responsible for the outbreak of Bolshevism in Russian was presented to the committee by Mr. Simmons. It included a sworn statement of a Russian that just before the czar's government was overthrown he was sent by the German imperial chancellor to Switzerland to determine which of the Russian Socialist schools there was the most radical and to offer the leader 5,000,000 marks if he would send his men into Russia to spread their propaganda.

After visiting Switzerland the Russian reported the school headed by Lenine was the most radical, but he recommended that the services of Lenine be not engaged as the result if successful would mean a terrible catastrophe for Russia.

Lenine Aided Germany.

This evidence, Mr. Simmons said, coupled with the fact that Lenine passed thru Germany on his way from Switzerland to Russia; that members of the red guard were given iron crosses and that German soldiers and officers were used to put down an anti-Bolsheviki mutiny, proved beyond a doubt where the responsibility lay for the reign of terror in Russia.

The witness read to the committee the text of a number of decrees thru which the Bolsheviks secured the nationalization of women.

"These need no comment," he said. "This is the thing that is being fostered and upheld by the propaganda now being circulated in the United States in an effort to justify Bolshevism. The creed of the Bolshevists does not respect and in fact discourages and in some cases even prohibits, women from being virtuous. It is the same with religion. The Bolsheviki favor no religion of any sort."

Full publicity of the acts and beliefs of the Bolsheviki, Mr. Simmons said, would be sufficient to kill the idea in the minds of any Americans who might have become sympathetic.

"What do you think of men like Albert R. Williams, who come here and uphold Bolshevism?" asked a member of the committee.

"I think," replied the witness, "that Williams left Russia before the terrorism began; Williams is going upon a theory and is not taking into consideration the practice of that theory."

LABOR SUPPLY EXCEEDS DEMAND

CHICAGO, Feb. 17. — The weekly report of the federal employment service shows that in Illinois the supply of labor generally exceeds the demand. East St. Louis, Joliet, and Rockford, reported surpluses, while in Chicago, Peoria, Rock Island and Springfield the supply and demand about balanced. Iowa reported a slight shortage of railroad machinists and a heavy surplus of laborers, carpenters and factory workers.

PROHIBITS USE OF WORDS NAVY AND NAVAL

Washington, Feb. 17.—Use of the word "Navy" or "Naval" in the titles of public or commercial organizations would be prohibited under legislation proposed to the house today by Secretary Daniels. The use of the two terms the secretary said created the impression that the organizations were under the supervision nor sanctioned by the navy department.

GERMANS SIGN LATEST TERMS OF MARSHAL FOCH

Acceptance of Renewal Told Supreme Council Monday

PARIS, Feb. 17—Marshal Foch this afternoon informed the supreme council of the acceptance by the Germans of the conditions for a renewal of the armistice.

Marshal Foch appeared in person before the counsel of the great powers today and announced the acceptance and the signing by the Germans of the new conditions of the armistice.

The signing took place at 6 o'clock Sunday evening on board Marshal Fochs private car at Treves. This averts what promised to be a rather critical situation as it had been reported that the Germans might persist in carrying out their intimations of a refusal to sign.

The new terms, while still withheld are understood to restrict German operations against Poland within certain fixed lines, thus removing the danger of a military clash and at the same time opening access between the interior of Poland and the Baltic Sea. But more important results will take form shortly when Marshal Foch returns to Treves for submission of the details of the disarmament and demobilization of the German forces which are being formulated by the military, naval and economic advisers of Foch. These are of a nature amounting in fact to a preliminary peace agreement.

Disarmament is understood to include both the naval and military branches and the naval authorities expect the ultimate naval terms will provide for the dismantling of the fortifications of Helgoland and the Kiel canal, the canal being opened for commercial navigation.

While the blockade is not raised by the present terms yet it is expected that the disarmament under later and more complete terms will obviate the necessity of a further blockade and permit such economic and food relief as is determined upon.

The council of the great powers today gave a further hearing on the Russian question but no decision was reached.

Germany Seeks U. S. Aid

Paris, Feb. 17. — Among the declarations of Mathias Erzzerger at Treves, according to a Berlin despatch published in the Temps was one to the American representative on the armistice commission that Germany went to the aid of the United States from 1868 to 1870 during the great economic crisis, furnishing money, clothes, shoes and machinery. If the United States came to the aid of Germany today, more than fifty years afterward, Erzberger said, she could give Germany food and raw materials against a German loan and at the same time would be doing a good stroke of business. Erzberger said Germany was suffering from hunger. The doctors had made known the number of victims of the blockade.

More than a half million men, women an dchildren had died from exhaustion or the results of lessened capacity to resist disease, he said. He declared that Bismarck immediately gave succor to Paris in 1871 after the Franco-Prussian war.

Erzberger gave warning that Bolshevism would result from hunger in Germany. He protested against what he termed the oppression against everything German in Alsace-Lorraine and against the encouragement given by the entente to the Polish apetite for conquest.

Germany, Erzberger declared, had accepted President Wilson's fourteen points for peace and the allies also had accepted them. Article 11, he said, did not give the allies the right to forbid the German people from defending themselves against such encroachments as the Poles were making.

Several Requests Asked

Paris, Feb. 17.—Two notes were handed to Marshal Foch by Mathias Erzberger when the renewal of the armistice was taken up at Treves. One note concerned the employment of the German Mercantile Marine for various purposes while the other was longer and contained several requests including the release of German prisoners and the maintenance of economic intercourse between Germany and the occupied territories.

Must Stop War Against Poles

Treves, Feb. 17. — Under the new terms for the renewal of the armistice, as presented to the Germans by Marshal Foch, Germany must abandon all offensive movements against the Poles and also must prohibit her troops from crossing the Russian frontier at a certain line. It was provided by the allied terms that the armistice must be renewed for an indeterminate period with a fixed delay of three days for the denunciation of it. The old terms of the armistice are to be carried out completely by Germany. ?

The German delegates reached Friday morning and Marshal Foch arrived at noon. The first discussion was at three o'clock Friday afternoon and was begun by Marshal Foch.

Mathias Erzberger spoke first, for the Germans.

FORMER CANADIAN PREMIER DEAD

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, former premier, who died of paralysis this afternoon was born at St. Lin, in 1841. Sir Wilfrid was the only French-Canadian who was ever premier of Canada, a portfolio he held from 1896 to 1911. Sir Wilfrid's career in politics ante-dated the federation of the provinces into the dominion of Canada in 1867.

After holding the premiership for 15 years Sir Wilfird's government suffered defeat at the polls with the proposed recripocity treaty with the United States as the paramount issue, Sir Wilfrid supporting this project. Notable achievements of the Laurier regime were the granting of preferential tariff for British products, the granting of autonomy to the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta, the participation of Canada with the British forces in the South Africa war and the inauguration of the Grand Turk arific trans-continental railway scheme. He was a delegate to Washington in the interests of better relations between Canada and the United States and was a member of the high commission which sat at Quebec August 23, 1898 to discuss questions affecting jointly Canada, Great Britain and the United States

On three notable occasions Sir Wilfrid went to England as representative of Canada—the diamond jubilee of Queen Victoria and the coronations of King Edward and King George.

AMERICANS MARRY TURKISH WOMEN

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Eighteen of the fifty-six members of the crew of the U. S. gunboat Scorpion, interned at Constantinople from April 11, 1917, until last November, married Turkish women and have been left behind there, according to Lieutenant Commander Herbert S. Babbitt of Houghton, N. Y., former commander of the Scorpion; who arrived here today with forty other members of the gunboat's crew on the Italian Steamer Dante Alighieri. A new crew was sent to relieve the interned men soon after the armistice was signed.

One of the crew's benedicts was Joseph Darley, commander's yeoman, aged sixty-six, who requested permission to remain in Turkey because he wanted to marray "a beautiful Turkish girl about 20 years old." His request was granted and an effort will be made to obtain his discharge and a pension.

MEXICANS RETURN PROPERTY TO OWNERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The Mexican government has returned to their owners more than a thousand properties confiscated immediately after the revolution which resulted in Carranza's coming into power. The list of restored properties as received today in Washington shows that with a single exception only Mexicans of Mexican companies have been favored. The exception was the French company "ElBoleo" which operates mines in lower California. One of the most significant features of these restorations, is that many former supporters of Diaz and Huerta and even royalists are in the list. This is taken to mean that Carranza is endeavoring to placate the various factions opposing him.

Conferees Reach Agreement On Postoffice Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senate and house conferees reached an agreement today on the $400,000,000 post office appropriation by eliminating the senate amendment providing for pneumatic tube mail service in New York City and Brooklyn and retaining the senate amendment appropriating $200,000,000 for road construction during the next three years.

The pneumatic tube amendment, over which the conferees have been deadlocked for a week authorized the postmaster general to arrange for tube service at Boston and New York.

Continuance of the tube service has been a scurce of conflict for many years in congress and the past post office appropriation bill was vetoed by President Wilson because of Postmaster General Burleson's opposition to its appropriation for the tube service.

The senate provision for a road building program, provides $50,000,000 for this year and $75,000,00 for each of the two following years. The house conferees also yielded on the senate appropriation of $300,000 for motor truck service. The house bill set aside $1,000,000 for this service.

The confrees voted to retain the provision granting salary increases for postal employes but accepted the senate recommendation limiting this increase to the present fiscal year. Establishment of a commission to investigate the salaries of postal employes which the senate inserted was also retained as was the senate provision appropriating $850,50 for the airplane mail service.

Conditions At Brest Told By Senator Owen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, will be invited to tell the senate military committee of conditions at the American embarkation camp at Brest which he sharply criticized in a statement after his arrival in New York from France. Secretary Baker also expects Senator Owen to call at the war department soon to tell the war department officials as to what he saw abroad.

Secretary Baker said today he was delighted that Senator Owen had been at the camp and after reading what the senator had to say declared that the war department was combing every source where additional ships to bring the troops home might be found.

"As to the crowding at Brest," the secretary continued, "I have not the means of knowing what the answer to that is. I have been told—and I do not like to say that I have been told, because it sounds so unauthoritative—but I have been told that the French railroad congestion is such that it is necessary for us to use the French railroads when we can get them. They are using them in their own demobilization and for the British and as a consequence we have to use them when we can get them.

"That might mean sending more people into Brest and keeping them longer than we would desire them to be there in anticipation of the known capacity of the transport fleet in order to make sure to have enough men there when the transports come in. That is the answer I have heard from officers who have returned to this country.

"When the senator says 'unsanitory' I do not think he means unsanitary in the sense that it is unclean There are simply oceans of mud there. I know that because I was at Brest substantially at this time last year. It rains 330 out of 365 days and sometimes five time a day. The mud seems to be our big trouble there."

The secretary added that returning officers and others who had passed thru Brest recently had told him that food conditions were very good and that outside of the weather and the mud they saw little to complain.

IMPEACHMENT OF JUDGE RECOMMENDED

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Feb. 17.—A majority report of the judiciary committee of the West Virginia house of delegates made today, recommends the impeachment of Judge George C. Sturgis, the 76 year old jurist of the circuit court of Monongalia county. A minority committ report held that the judge's conduct was not deserving of impeachment, but a motion to substitute the latter for the majority report was ruled out of order.

The majority report finds that Judge Sturgis has been guilty of having unlawfully practiced the profession of law during his term of office as judge in violation of his oath of office of maladministration, corruption and high crimes and misdemeanors for which he of right should be impeached.

JOINT SESSION OF LEGISLATURE TODAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 17.—Members of the legislature were returning to Springfield tonight for te joint session tomorrow morning when Governor Lowden and Finance Director Omar H. Wright will speak on the budget for the biennium.

Growing out of criticism last week in the appropriations committee of the method of preparing the budget in "lump sum," the finance department has worked overtime to have available itemized statements covering every recommendation for expenditures. Democratic members of the house are threatening to ask Mr. Wright "some pointed questions."

Among the questions facing the legislature the present week are the proposed investigation of the alleged price combine of manufacturrs of building materials, the "search and seizure lay" of the Anti-Saloon League and the Dunlap state police bill which is made special order in the senate for tomorrow morning.

DELEGATES TURN ATTENTION TO RUSS QUESTION

Acceptance of Invitations to the Prinkipo Conference Expires

PARIS, Feb. 17.—(By the Associated Press)—Attention of the delegates to the peace conference will focus on Russia today, the supreme council having decided that, as the time allowed for acceptance of the invitation to the Prinkipo conference nas expired, something else must be done.

Winston Spencer Churchill of Great Britain has proposed that the invitation be renewed and that some of the conditions that made the first invitation unacceptable to most of the different Russian factions be omitted. If the supreme council accepts this position as seems possible, it probably will not insist that the conference be held at Prinkipo Island. It is possible that instead of a general meeting of the representatives of Russian factions, direct negotiations may be initiated or commissions will be appointed to get into touch with the opposing elements there.

It is scarcely expected that special commissions of the peace conference which are studying questions confided to them will be able to submit reports to the full conference this week but it is hoped that some of these reports will be ready for revision by the supreme council, which is still acting as a medium between the commissions and the conference.

The committee of the interallied women suffragist conference which has been interviewing statesmen in search of support for President Wilson's plan to give women representation in the conference and in the league of nations has achieved a great success in the estimation of its members. Satisfactory assurances have been given by President Poincare and Jules Cambon, one of the French delegates to the peace conference and by foreign minister Hymans of Belgium. Premier Clemenceau in addition has promised to support a bill given women the right of municipal suffrage, which is now pending in the French chamber of deputies.

COLUMBUS HONORS CAPT. RICKENBACKER

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 17.—General W. L. Kenly, chief of military of the banquet festivities arranged in honor of the home coming of Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker, despite a near serious accident at New Philadelphia, Ohio.

General Kenly left his office in Washington shortly before noon saying he was going for a short flight. He ascended and finding atmospheric conditions suitable decided to accept the invitation for a dinner in honor of America's ace of aces in Columbus, a distance of about 400 miles. He cleared 300 miles of his trip when he encountered a snow storm, which forced him and his pilot to descend at New Philadelphia. In descending the machine struck on its nose overturned and was badly damaged. Major V. C. Ocker, pilot of the machine, sustained several minor injuries in the accident.

General Kenly made the rest of the trip to Columbus by automobile and train. The streets of Columbus were thronged with people during the afternoon to get a glimpse of Rickenbacker as he rode in a parade in which thousands of men, women and children marched. The afternoon demonstration concluded with an address by Governor Cox who welcomed Rickenbacker in the name of the state.

The banquet tonight was attended by many army, navy, city and state officials.

BUTTE MINERS RETURN TO WORK

BUTTE, Mont. Feb. 17.—Butte's strike of miners has ended. Unofficially it ended this morning when several thousand miners who had remained away from work for nine days presented themselves at the mines and asked for their old jobs. Officially it ended late today when officers of the Butte mental miners union (Independent) made public announcement that it had "called off the strike temporarily, acting on the recommendations of the soldiers, sailors and workers council."

Prior to the announcement of the metal miners union the metal mine workers industrial union No. 800, I. W. W. had announced that it had voted "unanimously" to end the strike and reutrn to work.

Close to 5,000 miners appeared at Butte mines this morning and reported for work acording to report of offiials of the companies. Of this number, approximately 3,000 were employed. No discrimination was shown it was said and those who did not go to work will receive their jobs back within the next forty-eight hours.

Bolsheviki Found In U. S. Will Be Deported

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. — Aliens found advocating destruction of property or overthrow of the government by force will be deported under the provisions of the immigration act of February 5, 1917. This announcement was made today by Secretary of Labor Wilson in a letter sharply rebuking Michrometer Lodge 460, International Machinists of Brooklyn for protesting against the deportation of 58 "alien radicals."

The secretary denied that the aliens were being deported without due process of law and asserted they had been given fair trials.

Mr. Wilson reiterated his previously announced decision that no person would be arrested simply for joining the industrial workers of the world, but aliens advocating sabotage or anarchy would be deported, and said:

Will Enforce Law.

"It is my intention as secretary of labor to carry out the clear provisions of the law; first, because it is my sworn duty to do so and second because any foreigner who comes to this country and advocates the overthrow of our form of government by force is an invading enemy who is treated with great leniency when he is simply deported to the land from which he came.

'When our own citizens desire to change the form of government they can do so peacefully in the manner provided by the constiaution.'

Mr. Wilson called the union's attention to the fact that passage of the immigration act was strongly supported by the American Federation of Labor of which you are a part.

Discussing the deportations the secretary said:

"Those you refer to as radicals are being sent out of the country because they have been found advocating the overthrow of our government by force. * * * * * They have had every possible opportunity both at the places where they were originally arrested sometime ago and at the department in Washington to defend themselves against the charges made under the immigration law. All were freely granted the privilege of employing counsel. The right to resort to the courts was not denied any of the aliens. Some of them availed themselves of the opportunity. Most of them preferred to abide by the department's decision.'

TERMINAL FACILITIES AT U. S. PORTS BLOCKED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Relinquishment of 500,000 deadweight tons of cargo shipping from the army service was sought today by Chairman Hurley of the Shipping board. He told Secretary Daniels and General March, chief of staff that $100,000,000 worth of commercial products for export was blocking terminal facilities at American ports and that the board was unable to supply the ships for moving it.

Secretary Daniels and General March were told if the army would release a portion of cargo shipping within the next sixty days, the shipping board would undertake to provide it with cargo space for all needs after the congestion at American ports had been relieved.

Figures were presented by Mr. Hurley showing that the army now has 2,559,000 deadweight tons of shipping in its service of which 462,0000 tons is classed as transport space, unsuited for cargo carrying.

SHORTAGE OF ARTILLERY COST MANY U. S. LIVES

Declares Gov. Allen of Kansas Before House Committee

WAHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Governor Allen of Kansas presented to the house rules committee today evidence of officers and men of the thirty fifth (Kansas and Missouri National Guard) division, which he declared showed that at times during the great Battle of the Argonne, American troops "fought the German artillery with infantry arms," because there were not enough horses to move the artillery as fast as the infantry advanced.

There also were times, the governor said, when shells from the American artillery fell into the American lines, killing and wounding men, due to the fact there was a "lack of aircraft to signal a change."

He added that everying over there fell down except the raw man-power the Americans fighting with less mechanical assistance than if they were troops from Indo-China.

Governor Allen submitted a mass of documents some of them of copies of official reports in support of his charges that men were needlessly sacrificed in driving the Germans beyond the Meuse and tomorrow he will appear before the senate committee. He explained that his purpose to give the committee's evidence so they could determine the wisdom of conducting an investigation.

Chairman Pou interrupted the governor to say he believed the evidence was but "the forerunner of a comprehensive inquiry," and latter the committee decided to hear tomorrow Brig. Gen. C. I. Martin, an officer of the 35th Division, who was relieved of duty the day before the opening of the battle of the Argonne.

Announcement Misleading.

Governor Allen told the committee the war department's announcement that major casualties of the 35th Division were 1,733, was misleading. He declared all casualties of the division exceeded 8,000, including about 1,700 dead.

Governor Allen said much of his information was gathered first hand in France while he was engaged in Red Cross and Y.M.C.A. work but added that after making public charges of the losses of the division several weeks ago he had received letters from manw who were in the battle declaring his statements were accurate.

"Have you received any that took issue with you?" asked Representative Harrison of Mississippi.

"None whatever,' declared the governor.

Names of witnesses for the committee to call before it were given by the governor, some of them in confidence, awaiting progress of the inquiry. Included in the multitude of reports and statements given today was a report of Captain Harry R. Hoffman, a surgeon who had charge of the Triage, or field dressing station, who listed casualties of the 35th passing thru his station at 4,623 and also a report of an inspector of the division which said the division was short 2,700 horses for moving artillery.

"Mr. Sharp was one of the builders of the understanding which now more than ever binds together the French and American democracies.'

BUSY LESGISLATIVE WEEK PROMISED.

With the return of Gov. Lowden to the state capital a busy week is promised in the legislature. Scores of bills are to be introduced and as Speaker Shanahan has announced that sessions will continue thru Friday next week, there will be "something doing." One of the bills that comes up every session is one directed against capital punishment, but the rule is to be broken at this time. The senator who has fostered the bill the past says there is no use, since he knows the governor's attitude, even if the measure got thru the house and senate.

HONORS FOR ALL.

Negro soldiers returning to New York have been entertained in a generous way and all the honors possible have been accorded them. This is merely giving brave men their dues, but it is a gratifying example of America in proving that in a republic, after all, men free and equal.

It is remembered that in Jacksonville the biggest and best demonstration in honor of departing soldiers was for a group of colored men, all of whom have done credit to their home community.

LOANS OR GIFTS TO THE ALLIES?

Now it seems that there is some reason for taking into account the amount the U. S. has loaned to the allies every time that the war expenses are totaled. The suggestion has come from overseas that the U. S. will be asked to cancel the loan made to France. The foreign minister of finance there has even made the daring suggestion that in figuring war expenses the allies should go back to the beginning, and then make a settlemtnt on the basis of the actual loss of each, taking into account not only money but man power.

If this plan is followed out America would have a greater war burden than any of the other nations. It doesn't seem reasonable that any such plan will be adopted, but there might be some justification for asking the U. S. to share somewhat in the losses of France. That nation made vast loans to Russia and had extensive possessions in Turkey, which have been entirely lost. One thing is certain—the U. S. loans to Russia are gone, for there is no responsible government there to assume payment. And the loan to Belgium—when the suffering and heroism of the Belgian people is remembered, to talk about repayment seems unpatriotic.

What has become of the Morgan county drive for Armenian and Syrian relief? The allotment for the county was made and the drive has been in progress in nearly all other cities and towns. Anybody who reads about the suffering in those stricken countries cannot fail to contribute toward the relief fund.

Now that the war is over, nearly everybody has forgotten about the daylight saving plan. Nevertheless, the clocks are to be set forward an hour at midnight, March 31. The U. S. Garden association is seeking to enthuse people again in the daylight saving plan, but faces a more difficult task than was true last year.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

It is now made known that 46.25 per cent of the 2,079,000 American troops were transported exclusively in American ships. Of these 43.75 per cent were carried in naval transports. The percentage actually carried in British ships was 48.25 per cent. The American Navy, moreover, ascorted and guarded the transport of 82.75 per cent of all the troops, representing 1,720,360 men. The British escorted 14.12 per cent, representing 297,903 men.

These facts are not of as much present interest as they will be in the controversies of the future.—(From the Buffalo Express.)

ANOTHER RED CROSS ACTIVITY.

The Red Cross Society has again shown its adaptability and ability to meet conditions. A sailor in training at the Great Lakes station was recently identified as the heir to a major portion of a fortune of $4,000,000. The news had hardly been printed in the papers before a scheming lawyer had him i n tow a nd secured power of attorney. Then the Red Cross stepped in, took charge of the young man and put the unscrupulous lawyer to rout.

It will be remembered that Attorney Ward, who a year or two ago managed to secure control of the millions of an aged client, was thru the federal court obliged to disgorge, and more recently was disbarred from the courts. The time seems to be past when the crooked lawyer can escape.

MONEY IS ABUNDANT BUT ROADS ARE FEW.

In all the talk about hard roads these recent years it is surprising indeed that less than 45 miles of road have been constructed under the federal plan, with funds available since 1917. At that time congress appropriated more than $48,000,000 to assist the states in road building and the road building projects completed under the plan amount to the small total quoted.

Either the state good roads enthusiasts have not been familiar with the facts or else the conditions imposed are so rigid that it is difficult for states to comply. At any rate it's encouraging to think that such a huge sum is available under any conditions.

One editorial writer has aptly stated that Bolshevism thrives best on ignorance. That is a true saying and it might be followed up with the statement that the most certain end for this "ism" is thru the education of the people. Another condition which encourages the Bolshevili is poverty. In this country where people do not want, and where they grow to a real understanding of American ideals, the principles of "the reds" will not take root.

CONGRESSMAN McKINLEY'S NEW CLUB.

Someone will be unkind enough to say that Congressman McKinley's formation of the Illinois Girls' Club at Washington has some relationship with his senatorial aspirations. The Girls' Club was organized last Saturday being especially for young women employes of the government who are resident in the 19th Illinois congressional district.

The fact is that Congressman McKinley planned this club months ago because of the need which came thru the congestion in Washington, hundreds of Illinois girls being resident there is very crowded quarters. There was little or no opportunity for pleasant social life and to take care of this condition in a way which would mean much to the young women and their parents back home, the Illinois congressman suggested the club he has just formed. It might be regarded as a campaign plan were it not that it so well accords with the Illinois congressman's reputation for geniality and real interest in the welfare of young people.

Auction Sales.

It is the time of auction sales, when farmers sell their junk; regardless of the rains or gales, the auction brings a lot of males to blow the hard earned plunk. I never knew an auction yet upon a sunny day, it's always either cold or wet; when I go home I need a vet to drive my ills away. I much admire the auctioneer, who braves the rain and snow; his smile extends from ear to ear, he springs the gags I used to hear some forty years ago. We stand around, a dismal group, upon the frozen lawn, and buy in churn and chicken coop, and hear the long drawn plaintive whoop of "Going! Going! Gone!" We buy up loads of moldy hay and scythes and grinding stones, and whiffletrees and whips and whey, and mangy hens too old to lay, and horses mostly bones. We buy old pumps and rusty plows, and sick, moth-eaten sheep, and superannuated sows, and bony, prehistoric cows, because we think they're cheap. To get things cheap, I dare maintain, is mankind's chief desire; and so we stand out in the rain, and bid on useless things and vain, bid like a house afire.

POLICE NOTES.

The night police force was kept busy Saturday night running down alleged chicken thieves and by morning had two in custody. They also arrested Wabash Wilkes, who is wanted in Springfield by the federal authorities on a bootlegging charge.

"Quilly" Redding kept the police on a long hunt Saturday night. The officers went to his home in East Lafayette avenue about 3 o'clock Sunday morning and found no one at home. Returning to the house later they found that Redding had been there and left. Captain Sharp and Patrolmen Hurst and Arisman, however, continued their search and arrested their man about 9:30 Sunday morning. Redding was charged with stealing chickens and is now a prisoner in the county jail.

Amos Sutton was taken into custody on a similar charge, and is also at the county jail.

A horse and buggy was stolen from a resident on South Diamond street Saturday night. The police recovered the property early Sunday morning tied in an alley. Night Merchant's Police Murgatroyd found the horse tied behind McDougall's Blacksmith shop and notified the police who took the animal to Cherry's Livery.

CUT YOUR SHOE BILLS

"Heretofore, soles never lasted me more than three months, because my work keeps me walking constantly on cement. But I have worn a pair of Neolin Soles now for more than three months, and judging from their present condition, they will last three times as long." So says G. L. Kerr, manager of an automobile organization in Geneva, N. Y.

This extra wear given by Neolin soles not only makes the shoes soled with them cheaper by the year than other shoes, but the price you pay in the first place is sometimes less than for shoes of only ordinary wear.

You can get Neolin-soled shoes in many styles for every member of the family. Try these long-wearing, comfortable and waterproof soles on your worn shoes too. All good repair shops have them. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., of Akron Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels guaranteed to outwear all other heels

The Season Will Open Early

That the season will open early this year is an assured fact. The closing of the war removed restrictions and those responsible for Fashion's edicts were ready. Our Mr. Green, has return from the East, where he made an exhaustive study of designs and styles in ladies' suits. Coupled with this is Mr. Green's well known ability in exclusive personal designing. One of the newest ideas in ladies' suits, and certain to be popular, is the long narrow skirt with short coat, in plain or fancy materials. In capes the "Princess", made up in bright colors, will be in demand by smart dressers. In general, everything in browns, small plaids, mixtures and champagnes will predominate.

For the men, everything will be on the double breasted order with trousers in half-peg style. The prevailing material will be browns in small plaids, blues, champagne and grey, and novelty mixtures.

Our shop now is working full time, in both men and women's departments, and we suggest that you do not wait too long to come in and see the new materials, make selections and leave your measure —there will be a big rush with the actual opening of the season and you won't wish to be disappointed.

why is the kettle on my tail?

$200.00 Cash Prizes for the best answers

You never saw me, folks, did you, without the famous kettle on my tail? Everybody wonders why it's there. Well I've never told the secret yet, but now I'm going to give everybody who reads this a chance to guess it, and at the same time win one of a number of liberal money prizes. Come one, come all!—Help solve the great mystery.

Here's how to win:

First, there's no string on this contest. Anybody interested in horses or mules is urged to send in an answer. All I ask is that you don't use more than 100 words, and that you be sure to mention "Checkerboard Bags" (in which Purina Feeds are always packed). Now, don't be afraid—come on in everybody! The best answers take the prizes—regardless of fancy language or swell handwriting. Plain "Horse Sense" ideas on a post card may win.

Second, sign your name plainly, and also tell me the name of your feed dealer.

Third, mail your guess on or before National Maud Purina Day. That is February 25th,—I selected it specially because my favorite feed, Purina O-Molene saves my owner 25% of his feed.

Purina O-Molene is wonderful feed for mules and horses. I know, 'cause I'm a mule myself. It is economical, because I like it, and assimilate all of it that I eat. I never have trouble digesting all of my O-Molene. Also, it makes me husky and healthy, so that I can do more work for my owner.

Now then, here are the prizes:

For the best answer the prize will be $100.00.
For the next best answer the prize will be $25.00.
For the next best answer the prize will be $10.00.
To the dealer whose customer wins first prize $50.00.
To the dealer whose customer wins second prize $10.00.
To the dealer whose customer wins third prize $5.00.

The judges will be:

WALKER HILL, President Mechanics-American National Bank, St. Louis, Mo.
A. G. WHITE, Advertising Manager, Brown Shoe Co., St. Louis, Mo.
WM. H. DANFORTH, President and Founder of the Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo.

The winning answers will be mailed to you on or before March 25th.

Send your answer straight to me (and hurry) addressed to

REPORTS ON NEW ERA MEETING HEARD

Speakers Heard at Westminster Church Sunday Evening In Reports on Chicago Meeting Held Last Week.

Sunday evening a meeting was held in Westminster church, at which reports were had regarding the New Era meeting held last week in Chicago.

This movement was suggested some two years ao, by the women of the Presbyterian churches in the U. S. A., and the last General Assembly of the organizations took the matter up, at the gathering at Columbus, Ohio, in 1918, and urged the Church to take hold of the movement, to be extended thru the coming five years.

The idea is of an expansive work by the church—Spiritually, Financially and in various other ways.

Dr. E. B. Landis, who attended the Chicago meeting, presided and announced the various speakers, all of whom, except the first had been representatives of the local church at the great gathering in Chicago.

The first speaker was Mr. Ensley Moore, who, as a commissioner from the Presbytery of Springfield, had been present at the Columbus Assembly, which put the movement in motion. He explained how the subject was there proposed and put before the church at large.

President Rammelkamp, of Illinois College then gave his impressions of the gathering, and was followed by Miss Katherine Farr in a well prepared report. She was followed in turn by Mrs. R. R. Stevenson and Mrs. J. Marshal Miller in interesting accounts.

The exercises held the attention of the audience—a larger one than usual—so long that Mr. Landis, stated that he would defer his views of the subject and occasion to another time.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

The Passing of the 82nd Milestone of J. H. Campbell Observed.

Living on the road to Merritt and Exeter and just at the west edge of Morgan county is the venerable James H. Campbell, of the best citizens in the county. His estimable wife is the oldest daughter of the late Elder E. G. Rice and sister of A. C. Rice of this city and others of that well known family. Last Saturday was the 82nd birthday of Mr. Campbell and his family decided the event should be properly celebrated and to that end a goodly number of people were invited. Miss Carrie Campbell is the principal housekeeper now in the family as the mother with such capable aid is able to dispense with much of the care of the household leaving it to her dutiful daughter who attends to all with reat zeal and ability. Her triumph on this occasion was a superb, three course dinner which was greatly enjoyed by all present. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Craven and Miss Nettie Hill. A great many postal cards, flowers and other remembrances were sent Mr. Campbell who duly appreciated the kindness shown him by a host of friends.

Bad roads kept a good many from coming but a good many did attend. Among them were Charles Campbell, wife and daughter of White Hall; a brother, John B. Campbell of LaHarpe; Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Jones of Woodson; Mrs. Fred Craven, Chapin; Mrs. Nannie Rawlings, sister of Mrs. Campbell; Mrs. Margaret Heaton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rice, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKinney and daughter Miss Sallie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scholfield, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Campbell, Homer and Harold Campbell, sons.

The best way to find out whether or not a tractor is successful is to watch its performance in the hands of others. That is what thousands of farmers who are now Avery owners did. They watched the work of the first Avery Tractors closely, and it was not long before other Avery Tractors began to arrive in the same neighborhood. The fact that neighbors and relatives buy Avery Tractors after they watch their work closely, is the best proof that Avery Tractors are a success.

THE AVERY LINE GIVES YOU POWER for EVERY FARM NEED

You can get an Avery Tractor that exactly fits your size farm. They are built in six sizes—a size for every size farm—from 5-10 to 40-80 H. P. An Avery Tractor will do your plowing and all your other heavy field and belt work. With an Avery Motor Cultivator, you can also plant and cultivate your corn with motor power. It will also do your light field and belt work.

Remember that the five larger sizes of Avery Tractors are built alike with the same standardized design. They are the tractors with the perfected opposed motors and patented sliding frame transmissions. We have a stock of these tractors on our display floor. Come in and see them.

GIANT GERMAN PLANE CONSTRUCTED

BERLIN, Sunday, Feb. 16.—(By the Associated Press)—If the war had lasted a few months longer Germany was prepared to surprise the world with an enormous airplane. The new giant of the air, which was planned by Harold Wolff, an engineer, will have its first trial at Doberitz within a few days.

The machine is nearly 165 feet from wing tip to wing tip and stands more than 23 feet high. It has six motors with a total of 1,800 horse power, driven by four propellers two of which are forward and two aft. Each of the propellers has four blades. Two of the motors, it is said can stop simultaneously without affecting any of the propellers or having any result except to reduce the speed of the airplane.

The airplane is not only equipped with devices enabling the pilots to know at all times their altitude and angle of elevation but also with devices to tell the absolute as well as relative direction which it is believed will making flying possible on darkest night and in the thickest fog. The device for determining the absolute direction consists of an instrument adapted to receiving messages from various wireless stations and capable of such adjustment that a message from any particular station can be heard only when the device is turned in that direction.

Prevent Spanish Influenza By Anointing Nose

Prominent Middle-Wset Health Official Makes Important Announcement in Connection with Treatment of Bronchial Troubles

If you really have Spanish influenza do not attempt self-treatment with home remedies. Go to bed immediately and call a physician at once.

But there are preventive measures which can prevent your being attacked by this malady. Men-Tho-Eze has proven efficacious in cases of the treatment of sore throat, la grippe, tonsilitis, bronchitis, colds and all troubles resulting from congestion of the lungs and bronchial tubes. Here is a plain statement on Spanish influenza by the secretary of the board of health of a prominent middle-west state.

This physician maintains that Spanish influenza is like sore throat, la grippe, tonsilitis, bronchitis, colds and similar troubles in that it is caused by infection of the nasal passages. He recommends preventing this—and hence largely preventing Spanish influenza and other maladies—by keeping the nasal membranes moist and pliable by means of some oily antiseptic application.

For such treatment Men-Tho-Eze is ideal. The goose grease and turpentine in this preparation serve as an ointment, while the wintergreen and menthol form fumes which are breathed into the lungs and bronchial tubes. This breaks the phlegm. The Men-Tho-Eze not only keeps the nasal membranes healthy and fit to throw off germs, but it quickly breaks up a cold which might develop into Spanish influenza or some other serious trouble.

Men-Tho-Eze is a scientific combination of grandmother's old-fashioned goose grease and turpentine and the medical wisdom of China, which gave us wintergreen and menthol. It has proven a remarkable remedy for colds, catarrh and la grippe. Letters have been received from Spanish influenza sufferers who have used Men-Tho-Eze with beneficial results.

Men-Tho-Eze should be in every home. An application in time will often save a doctor bill.

Indigestion, Gas and Bloat From Acid-Stomach

An acid-stomach cannot digest food properly. Instead, the food sours and ferments and, passing into the intestines, becomes a breeding place for countless millions of deadly germs—toxic poisons they are called. These poisons are absorbed into the system and cause untold misery. So, you see, it is just acid-stomach, nothing else— that makes so many people weak, listless and unfit; saps their strength and energy; robs them of their vigor and vitality. Biliousness, bad liver, nervousness, blinding, splitting headaches, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica — these and many other still more serious ailments often are traced to the common source —an acid-stomach.

Take EATONIC and get rid quickly of the pains of indigestion, heartburn, that horrible, lumpy, bloated feeling after eating; disgusting, belching, food-repeating; sour, gassy stomach. These stomach miseries are caused by what doctors call "Hyperacidity." It's just ACID-STOMACH. And in addition to the pains and miseries it causes, ACID-STOMACH is the starter of a long train of ailments that most people never dreamed are in any way connected with the stomach.

Pleasant tasting EATONIC TABLETS that you eat like a bit of candy, quickly put an end to your stomach troubles. They act as an absorbent—literally wipe up the excess hurtful acid and make the stomach pure, sweet and strong. Help digestion so that you get all the power and energy from your food. You cannot be well without it!

If you are one of those who have "tried everything" but in spite of it still suffer all kinds of acid-stomach miseries—if you lack physical and mental strength and vigor—begin at once to take EATONIC. Get back your physical and mental punch and enjoy the good things of life. Like thousands of others you will say you never dreamed that such amazingly quick relief and such remarkable improvement in your general health was possible.

Your druggist has EATONIC. We authorize him to guarantee it to give you instant relief or refund your money. Get a big box of EATONIC today, it costs but little and the results are wonderful.

CASUALTIES IN U. S. COAL MINES 2,575

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Casualties in American coal mines in 1918 reported today by Secretary Lane of the bureau of mines included 2,575 men killed.

"This is the penalty paid by one peaceful industry during a year of war," said Secretry Lane today, "and it emphasizes the hardly appreciated fact that the worker in the mining industry who did his full duty during the war braved perils as did the soldier at the front and quite as willingly went to the supreme sacrifice.

"The war has been won and in its winning there will always stand forth the brilliant achievement and patriotic effort of the American coal miner."

There was a decrease of 233 deaths from explosions of gas and coal dust, Mr. Lane said, and the total fatalities during the year was proportionately less than in previous years.

The pest, which made its first appearance in Massachusetts, has spread over an area of sixty square miles near Schnectady, N. Y., and also a restricted region in Connecticut.

Secretary Houston said that the danger of further spread of the insect with its consequent serious damage in regions of intensive corn culture fully justified the appropriation.

Reason

Never was the attention of the world turned to the produce of the farm as at the present time. The world is hungry and must be fed. During the great period of reconstruction, depleted stocks must be replenished. While all farm products are three to five times higher than before the war, farms are but very little higher. Farms are the last to go up and the last to come down. Buy now, and get advantage of the big advance that is sure to come. Come in and let us know your wants.

TAX LEVY MEASURE IS ADOPTED

City Council in Weekly Session —Brook Sewer Trouble is Remedied.

At the meeting of the city council Monday morning the tax levy ordinance which was given the first reading a week ago, was adopted. Most of the other business up for consideration was of routine character.

Mr. Vasconcellos reported the details of the visit of representatives Young and Sonnemann from the state legislature, who came to view the site of the proposed reservoir and filtration plant. As already indicated, a statement from the legislature indicates the early passage of the bill which will make possible the transfer of the land by the state to the city of Jacksonville. However, some further legislative routine must be gone thru as the bill has not yet been reported out by the senate.

Mr. White stated that the trouble with the brook sewer had been relieved after a week's work. A force of Burlington railroad men came here to help end the trouble and after some days of investigation it was found that the stoppage was under the C. & A. right of way instead of the Burlington. A bundle of rags weighing nearly 300 pounds was the cause of the stoppage and just how it had gotten into the sewer was of course unexplained. The rags were saturated with tar and other refuse matter which comes from the gas plant of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. Mr White went on to say that while these by-products from the gas plant sometimes cause trouble in the sewers, that he believes that they make for more healthful conditions, as they serve for disinfectants.

Will Not Remove Water Pipe

Mr. White also reported that with City Engineer Henderson he had inspected that part of City Place where a contractor desires to remove the pipe placed there by the Jacksonville Water Co. Mr. White made a report not approving of the plan of removal and this was the order of the council. It wos the opinion of both Mr. White and Mr. Henderson that the removal of the pipe might cause some trougle with the valves and so result in a reservoir leakage.

The tax levy ordinance as indicated above, was given a second reading and adopted. An ordinance was presented providing for the vacation of North Mauvaisterre street from Washington street to the Wabash railroad right of way. This is part of the street immediately back of the Snyder Ice & Fuel Co. plant. It was explained that in view of this act by the city council that Mr. Snyder is deeding 1¼ acres of ground at Nichols park and will remove the old buildings erected there for ice storage. The commissioners feel that the exchange will be one of advantage to the city.

MR. NOLAN'S FUNERAL

At a later date the body will be brought to Rushville for interment.

Bancroft of Westminster street. JUDGE CARTER TALKS OF NEW CONSTITUTION

Supreme Court Justice Tells Some of Things Desirable to be Done —Says Many Features of Present Constitution Should Be Kept.

A fine and appreciative audience greeted Judge Orrin Carter of the supreme court at the Congregational church Sunday night as he discoursed on the coming state constitutional convention. A song service preceded the address and was fine and much enjoyed.

Of the excellent address a short outline is given.

I am glad to be with you on this occasion and I heartily indorse this movement for it is eminently fitting that we should mingle our religion with our politics and purify the every day life. I am glad too that you are to hear Mr. Forgan next Sunday night for he is a man eminently able to speak on the subject assigned him.

Law Basis of Civilgation

The coming constitutional convention is very important. There can be no civilization without law; no liberty without statutes. In the beginning all was chaos till the Creator spoke and established the law of the universe. All goes by fixed rules and when obeyed they are beneficent. Fire and water are good servants when held but hard masters when they have the upper hand. Do not disobey the laws of nature; "The mills of the gods grind slowly but they grind exceedingly small." If all were good there would be need of little law but they are not.

In early days Massachusetts lost her officials for they were tories and for eight months the commonwealth managed without officers showing what heights of self control the people had attained.

Russia and Mexico are examples of the results of doing without obeyed laws. Our federal constitution is a good document because the men who made it lived it. People learn by long experience to rule themselves. In North Dakota five judges of the state supreme court have been elected with the promise to validate whatever the farmers' association desire. In a court where justice prevails all are on an equality.

Our first constitutional convention was in 1818 made up of delegates sent to Kaskaskia and ratified by the federal government. Several attempts were made to have a second but they were voted down till the second time in 1847 In 1854 the proposition was voted down but revived and carried so that a convention was held in 1870. We can make but one amendment at a time as it now stands and efforts to change that have failed. As an amendment must have a majority of all votes cast at the election.

Some have said that Chicago doesn't want the convention but that is a mistake and the sooner it is held the better for Chicago is growing rapidly and will have greater power in the gathering. I hope the constitution will be so made that even if Chicago does have a majority of the population of the state she will not be able to rule. There is such an arrangement in New York state regarding the great metropolis.

May Meet in January.

The measure for a constitutional convention is often lost because the members of the lower house of the legislature do not want to lose the minority representation clause in our present constitution and it is well known that a great majority of the people are against that feature. It does enable some men to get into the legislature who would not be there otherwise. The present legislature will fix the time for the convention and the method of choosing delegates and they will doubtless look out for themselves in the work. I wish there could be a special election for delegates and not have them chosen at the regular fall election. I think next January would be a good time for the convention. We must remember that constitution and statutes are no panacea for public ills.

I hope the new constitution will not be revolutionary. There is much in the present constitution that should be left I think at least 75 per cent of the present constitution should be retained. It was drawn almost fifty years ago when the state was largely agricultural and the problems of great cities had not appeared. Chicago and East St. Louis are questions that need especial attention. Some favor home rule for cities but when St. Louis had it it failed to give satisfaction. Chicago is probably the greatest railroad center in the country and East St. Louis is almost the second.

A Shorter Ballot.

We need a shorter ballot. In a city the tickets have several hundred names on them and are bewildering to a voter. Of course it will be hard to say what offices shall be elective and what appointive but all are agreed that the ballot must be shortened.

Our present constitution is too minute. It is too much like legislating. We shall be wise if we build for the future. On the whole I feel optimistic. Public opinion is an all powerful factor. Our selective draft law in the recent war was most admirable and almost universally acepted without a murmur. Hereafter we shall think less of Hyphenated people but all will be true Americans, with no German-Americans; Polish-Americans and the like

The present is a good time for a convention as a general feeling of union and brotherhood exists.

I hope to see all classes represented in the convention, lawyers of course; manufacturers, laborers, educators and so on. After the main fundamentals have been submitted together the other should be by selections so that some may be adopted if not all.

This is a time to lay aside all animosities and unite for the common good. A constitution is all important and the best talent and most reliable should prepare it having in mind the rights of all.

LIEUT. HATFIELD WEDS MISS CLARINDA WINE

Ceremony at Home of Bride in Vermont—Become Friends at University of Illinois—Now at Fort Sill Camp.

The marriage of Lieut. W. Durrell Hatfield of this city and Miss Clarinda G. Wine was solemnized Saturday night at the home of the bride's parents, in Vermont, Ill. Only relatives were present for the ceremony. The service was said by Rev. Mr. Wilson and very shortly afterward the bride and groom took a train for St. Louis. As Lieut. Hatfield is still in the service the ceremony had a military dignity. The home was very appropriately decorated with flags and ferns. A wedding supper was served following the ceremony and all the social features of the wedding were of a most generous kind.

Mrs. Hatfield is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wine, her father being a well known banker of Vermont. It was at the University of Illinois that the friendship with Lieut. Hatfield began which culminated in the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Hatfield is a young woman of university training and has the charms of person and character that have made for special popularity.

Lieut. Hatfield, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hatfield of this city, graduated from Illinois college in 1914, after an exceptional record. Soon afterward he became a student at the University of Illinois, specializing in science work and last June took his Ph. D. degree at the university. Prior to that time he had made several efforts to enter military service but had not been accepted. He made another effort and was accepted and sent to Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. From that camp he was transferred to Camp Crane, at Allentown, Pa., where he was waiting to be sent overseas when the armistice was signed. Very shortly afterward he was assigned to duty at Ft. Sill, Okla., as camp sanitary engineer, and he is now filling that important post.

Lieut. Hatfield had been for some time associated with the water survey of the state, having specialized along that line, and in the overseas service he hoped to be an assistant to Major Bartow of the water survey, who has been in France for more than a year past.

Here in Jacksonville Lieut. Hatfield was known in his student days as a musician of ability, a student of unusual strength, and his successful work at the university did not come as a surprise. The Jacksonville friends will join in hearty congratulations at this time, altho the facts about the approaching wedding had been kept as an entire secret.

Lieut. and Mrs. Hatfield are now at the officers' quarters at Ft. Sill, and are very pleasantly located there. The lieutenant because of the work in which he is engaged, will probably be in the service for a number of months, but is well satisfied with the work which the government has assigned to him. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hatfield returned Sunday night from Vermont where they went to attend the wedding.

Tickets for the Colonial supper at Grace church Wednesday evening must be secured by noon today. No one without tickets will be served.

REMARKABLE HEROISM SHOWN BY BELGIANS

Stories Show Patriotism and Devotion of Belgians During German Occupation — How Two Men Gave Up Their Lives For Man Higher Up.

Brussels, Jan — (Correspondence of the Associated Press) —Stories of heroism, patriotism and devotion of Belgians during the German occupation are continually coming to the surface of the miasmal pool of intrigue, treachery and selfishness which the Germans left behind in Belgium.

How two men gave up their lives and two went to prison for a period which would have lasted twenty years had the Germans been victorious, that the man "higher up" might live and continue managing the underground organization which was sending valuable information out of the occupied country has now been related to the Associated Press correspondent by the man whose life was saved by their sacrifice.

Adolphe Buyl, liberal member of the Belgian parliament, Alderman of the Commune of Irelles in the city of Brussels, is the man for whom two men died and who for four years conducted the organization and lived continually in the fear of execution by Germans.

AMurderous Efficiency

Late in 1914 the Germans had not organized the Dutch frontier with that murderous efficiency which sent to their graves many young Belgians attempting to cross into Holland. Buyl had access to the seals of the municipality and every evening in various out of the way cafes, twenty, thirty, sometime as many as fifty young men would assemble, reaching the place singly and by devious ways. The seal of the municipality was there in the hand of a different man every night. Passports and identification blanks were there, and the young men would emerge from the cafes supplied with proper, or rather improper identification and make their way into Holland and thence join the Belgian army battling on the Yser. More than one thousand men were sent out between October, 1914, and February, 1915.

Then the Germans became aware of the leak and the frontier was hermetically, electrically sealed and the work become more dangerous and difficult. Guides had to be provided—generally smugglers of gasoline and other commodities across the Dutch border—who for a consideration averaging fifty francs for each man would pilot them across the frontier. Rubber gloves and wire cutters were necessary tools of their trade and many a German sentry was found by his relief with a knife deeply sunk in his throat and lying alongside a break in the wire fence.

Workers Were Volunteers.

At no time were there less than one hundred men engaged in the work. They included railroad station masters, crossing tenders, mail carriers, cafe kepeers and many others in humble walks of life, all volunteers desirous of serving their country even at the risk of being stood against the wall and shot, and as a matter of fact, many of them were. But at no time did more than two or three men engaged in the work know that Buyl was the "man higher up."

The first member of the organization to be taken by the Germans was Phillipe Baucq whose arrest was simultaneous with that of Edith Cavell, the English nurse whose execution by Germans sent a thrill of horror thruout the world. Baucq was shot on October 12, 1915, with the brave English nurse. Miss Cavell, however, was never charged by the Germans with espionage, but with aiding Belgians and others to escape from Belgium.

Baucq was succeeded as Buyl's right-hand man by another man named Dubois. On June 1, 1916, Dubois, with 60 others was arrested and imprisoned at Hasselt. The Germans boasted that they had smashedl the Belgian organization which had evaded them for two years. Dubois and three others were shot on September 25, 1916, and sentences aggregating 220 years were imposed upon others accused of acting with them.

Would Not Renounce Leader.

Both Baucq and Dubois knew that Alderman Buyl was head of the organization and both took their orders from him. For days before the execution the Germans endeavored by offering to spare their lives to induce them to denounce their leader but they refused and were shot. Nevertheless the work went on.

In 1917, Buyl's secretary was arrested and Buyl went into hiding.

"For nights I could not sleep," Buyl told the Associated Press, "the slightest noise would make me start, I could not eat and there were moments of depression when I would gladly have faced a machine-gun at the edge of a little wood to escape the mental torture of those long endless days and interminable nights." His secretary escaped with a short sentence. Buyl emerged from his hiding place and went on about his work.

"Two days before the armistice, I sent out a courier to Holland," he said with a tinge of pride.

"Heroism is the work of an instant but what I have gone thru during those last four years is not heroism, it is hell," said Buyl. Before the war he was a florid, happy, jovial man but he is now emaciated and haggard, but a shadow of his former self.

And we fell to talking of Dubois and Baucq and tears welled up into his eyes as he said; "Greater love hath no man than he who gives up his life for a fellow man."

What Causes Rheumatism?

Medical authorities tell us it is a deposit of acids which the kidneys have been unable to eliminate from the system. Food-waste which is allowed to lie in the bowels ferments and creates poisons which are absorbed into the blood. The nerves, lungs and skin pores do their utmost to throw these poisons out, but if the volume is too great, pain, fall and rheumatism results. Your druggist has a preparation named SALINOS, a thoro laxative, which completely empty the bowels, including the lower bowel where most of the poisons are found. It tastes and acts pleasant. Get a bottle for a Quarter or, if you prefer, Fifty-cents and a Dollar size.

DR. D. S. SCHAAF WRITES FROM EAST

Letter From Former Minister Here Gives Interesting View on World Question—All Sons in War Work.

Many of the Jacksonville friends of Dr. D. S. Schaff will be interested in the following paragraphs from a letter which he has recently written to his long time friend, Dr. F. S. Hayden here in Jacksonville. Dr. Schaff, who was at one time pastor of Westminster church, is now profesor of church history in Aleghany Theological Seminary and resides in Pittsburgh.

"The interest in things contemporary does not grow less, I think, with the pasing of the years. I do not feel that I have quite the same right to take a part in the settlement of pressing problems as I once did, properly or not properly, but it is a great thing to live and I am understanding my father's last remembered words to me better than I once did: 'How I would like to come back in fifty years and see what this great country and city have become, etc." I have not come to the view yet that the human stuff in mortal man is of better quality or that there is more of it than there was in the days in Abraham and Pericles and Rameses—a rather motley group—but the inheritance we have in this generation is very rich and with the great problems we are thinking about it does seem as if we ought to work out a state of society in which men's equal rights had larger and fairer recognition.

"I do not believe, however, it is any easier for godly parents to bring up a family in the paths of righteousness than it was a hundred years ago. Not that conditions were better then but human depravity—as they used to call it—abides.

"I have been called on in the last months to go back to my father's record on 'Americanism' and on the relations that ought to exist between Britain and ourselves. And do you know I am that were inclined to resent the these questions and to audiences that were inclined to recent the Americanization of Germans and that were hostile more or less to England? My father would have been 100 years old had he lived to Jan. 1, 1919 and I was glad to see these views of his brought out in a long article in the (German) Reform Mesenger commemorating the anniversary.

"My own family moves along with the fast hastening years of the century: Paul First sergeant, was in battle and reached New York last Saturday goes to Camp Sherman to be mustered out Harold did not get across. Philip's regiment came back last week. He has risen to be major and we are expecting him home on the Saxonia tomorrow. He has been sick and comes home as a convalescent. Norman is still with the war trade board, Washington, where he has done well."

COAL WAGON AND STREET CAR COLLIDE

An east bound car of the Jacksonville Railway company collided with one of York's coal wagons at the intersection of West State and South West street at noon Monday. The driver of the coal wagon was driving south in West street and the street car slowed and evidently he thought it was going to stop. Instead it came on and struck the wagon on the front end. Fortunately it was not moving at a rapid rate and no damage resulted.

Letters of Interest from Morgan County Boys in the Country's Service.

From Pvt. Francis F. Arenz

Private Francis F. Arenz, who is now with the 53d company U. S. M. C., stationed at Port Au Prince, Haiti, has written the following letter to his parents here:

Port Au Prince, Haiti,
Jan. 13, 1919.

Dear Mother and Father:

This has been another hard day. We got up at 5, fell in, had roll call, twenty minutes exercise, then breakfast; after breakfast, fell in and drilled for one hour and fifteen minutes, then came at 8:30, fell in again for parade, which lasted twenty minutes. Then we got ready and at ten we fell in again, for troop after troop had signal drill, which lasted until eleven. Then we were through until tonight and at four thirty we started out on a hike. Hiked 4¼ miles in one hour and five minutes. Rested for about an hour and then returned and it took us only 55 minutes.

We start Thursday on a 25 mile hike; leave at 5 o'clock and the 20th of January we leave on a one hundred and eighty nine mile hike. We walk it and have to carry two blankets, one pair pants, one P. D. shirt, 1 suit underclothes, 3 pairs socks, 1 pair shoes, dog tent, 3 day's food, toilet set, a rifle and sixty rounds. Don't you think that quite a bit to carry? I wish we were going to hit the states but don't seem like there is much chance. The captain just called so will finish later.

I will now try to finish my letter. Have just returned from a 35 mile hike and it was sure some hike. Well, father, have you heard how many boys there have left the army, navy or marine corps? There are very few left of the marine corps and believe me, dad, the marines sure have made a name for themselves over in France. If it wasn't for the poor, good for nothing four year boys what would have become of the U. S. today? The four year marines did most of the work and all of the dirty work, but yet today the people in the U. S. don't ever hear of the marine corps. They were not compelled to fight but came in with a will and free heart and knowing that Uncle Sam needed them.

Well mother, I will have to close as I have to go out on the range at two o'clock and so I will close, hoping to hear from you soon, and mother be sure and don't forget to send me something good to eat. With lots of love and best wishes, I am as ever,

Yur loving son,
Private Francis F. Arenz.

January 5th, 1919.

Dear Uncle George:-

Well, how are you coming on? I have ust goten over the mumps and am feeling first rate again now. Would have been away from here quite awhile ago it it hadn't been for that. Expect to be leaving any day now. It is just a matter of getting transportation. I don't know where I will be after leaving here, but I am anxious to be on the move "Somewhere." I had a very nice Christmas this time even if I did have the mumps Being in a contagious ward we couldn't have a Christmas tree decorations like the others but anyway we had a very injoyable day. Old Santa was on the job and brought me a fine pair of Red Cross socks, one of them filled with candy and nuts. Then at noon came the turkey dinner with the mashed potatoes, gravy and dressings. After dinner the Red Cross brought us oranges, apples, fruit cookies, figs and molasses taffy. So you see we were well supplied with the Christmas dainties even if we were thousands of miles from home. Now, as the war is over, we are all looking forward with much joy to the day when our turn comes to return to the dear old U. S., the greatest and best country on earth. I think I may be back in the States some time in the spring, possibly sooner, but I am not going to figure on anything so good till I am there. I will be one happy lad when I set foot on U. S. soil again. We don't realize what a great and good coutry we are privileged to live in til we get away from it and live without it for a while. I know that I will return with a greater love and appreciation for home and country than I ever had before. I will close for this time and hope to see you before many more months elapse.

Give my kindest regards to Aunt Annabell.

Hope this finds both of you in good health.

Your Affectionate Nephew,
ARCHIE.

From Lieut. Coverly

Mr. and Mrs. William Coverly have received the following letter from their son, Lieut. W. E. Coverly now in the navy service on board the U. S. S. Olympia. The letter is dated from the Island of Malta:

Island of Malta.
U. S. S. Olmypia.
Jan. 16, 1919.

Dear Folks:-

I am now at Malta. This is a very beautiful little island. It is about twenty miles long and three wide. About 200,000 people are living here. I have quite a few pictures of this place and will show them to you when I come home. The stores are built with very beautiful stone and are very clean. The streets are of stone and are as clean as a pin.

This island is owned by England and she has a number of soldiers here. I was ashore last night for dinner. We had a dandy meal for three for about ten shilling That is two dollars and a half. Things are very cheap.

Little boats come out to the ship and take us in to shore for ten cents. Our small boats take us in every hour but rather than lose the hour waiting around we take one of these small gondolas for a dime. We have an admiral on our ship and we often go ashore in his barge. That is a small motor boat, wonderfully upholstered and is run by five sailors. That is all they do is to run his barge. I often ride in and it goes like lightning. This one I think cost about fifteen or twenty thousand dollars. It is for the admiral and his staff only, but they often invite the other officers to ride with them.

We are leaving about three this p. m. for a port on the south coast of Italy. We expect to be there about a day. From there to Venice where we are to be stationed five or six months.

They have been having a little trouble in Italy in regard to a certain tract of land. The slavs want this particular place as a sea port, but Italy also wants it, and I think the U. S. will decide the matter.

It is about twelve hundred miles from Portmouth, England, to Gibraltar, a thousand from the Gibraltar to the island of Malta and about seven hundred from Malta to Vienna. So you see my time so far has ben spent mostly in travel.

I have never been sea-sick all tho the ship has rolled a bit at times. I guess I am sort of used to it now. While on the Missouri we were out for a stay of about ten days. I was with the Atlantic Fleet then consisting of about twenty five battle ships. We generally made Hampton Roads or Yorktown, Virginia our base. Yorktown, altho rather historic there was not much to see there.

You see I can tell you things now which I couldn't before on account of the censorship. I think I told you I was a censor eight months on the Missouri. Had to read about a hundred letters a day. It was quite a job. The crew were allowed only to write but two pages a day, but most of them used the largest two pages they could find on the ship.

Labor is very cheap in Malta. We sent a wireless ahead for 365 tons of coal. When we arrived the coal was waiting with about a hundred men ready to put it aboard. They worked all day and received about seventy five cents each.

Russia is in a very bad condition at present. Sugar $4.50 a pound, tobacco about $5.00 a pound. In fact they will spend most any price for it. The Bolsheviki ran every body out of Petrograd. They came to Murmace and lived in box cars or any place where they could find shelter. Large families lived in places when there was hardly room enough to turn around. They were fed by the English. When Russia stopped fighting the Germans entered and backed the Bolsheviki. They murdered every one that resisted. The Germans also captured every thing that America had shipped to Russia, including shoes, airplanes, motor cars and many other things. Also food supplies. These things were not captured from American soldiers but from the Russians. These things were shipped to Russia before she ceased fighting.

Will, I think I have written enough for the present.

With love,
Lieut. W. E. Coverly.

AN ATTACK OF "FLU" OFTEN LEAVES KIDNEYS IN WEAKENED CONDITION

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of influenza which has visited so many homes.

The symptoms of this disease are very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition. Almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signal often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root, being an herbal compounnd, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular medium and large size battles, for sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper. Jacksonville Daily Journal.

CONCERNING THE Y. M. C. A.

The following from the Chicago Tribune will be read with interest:

Dr. Hutchinson is widely known through his writings on popular treatment of hygiene and medical subjects. He spent twelve months in the war zone and had unusual opportunities to observe the life of the American and allied armies and the service organizations.

Two things especially struck me during my year along the western fronts—what the "Y" had done for the war, which was beyond all praise and what the war had done for the "Y" which was scarcely less. I should feel ashamed of myself if I didn't speak out and add my mite to clearing up this cloud of superficial criticism, which has been allowed to overshadow the magnificent achievement of the Y. M. C. A.

Most of the criticism brought back and written home by our boys in France seems based on comparatively superficial charges. Its work as I saw it from Belgium to the Adriatic and from the home training camps to the front line trenches was simply magnificent. While of course mistakes were made, they were on the whole fewer than those of most other organizations operating under such difficult circumstances, not excepting the military authorities.

I saw the "Y" in operation from Belgium all the way across the western front, and on the two fronts in Italy, the Isonzo and in the mountains of the Trentino. By its casualty list one may estimate the service which the workers rendered in the most dangerous sectors. Nine dead by shell fire and gas, a score seriously wounded and gassed, and thirty-three dying in service chiefly from exposure and overwork, tells the story of heroic service given voluntarily by "Y" workers.

So vitally and pricelessly valuable was its work in keeping up themorale o ft hetroops that the German general staff declared it a compatant and ordered its front line stations and huts shelled, just as it did the dressing stations and field hospitals.

The "Y" program repulsed the greatest enemy of the army, the boredom that settled over fighting forces between battles, and over such branches as the S. O. S. and as such was a great war winning contribution. The "Y" gave the soldier boy a home, a club, a library, a concert hall, a church, a theater, an athletic field and stadium.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in a Few Moments —Try This!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrious try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and is not overcome, it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin faded, dry scraggy or too oily get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft lustrious beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowltop's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

INFLUENZA

Valuable suggestions from statement issued by British Royal College of Physicians.

Declares this outbreak is essentially indentical both in itself and its complication including pneumonia, with that of 1890 and "has no relation to plague as some have suggested."

"Well-ventilated, airy rooms promote well-being, and to that extent at, any rate, are inimical to infection; drafts are due to unskilful ventilation, and are harmful; chilling of the body surface should be prevented by wearing warm clothing out of doors. Good, nourishing food, and enough of it, is desirable; there is no virtue in more than this. Alcoholic excess invites disaster; within the limits of moderation each person will be wise to maintain unaltered whatever habit experience has proved to be most agreeable to his own health. The throat should be gargled every four to six hours, if possible, or, at least, morning and evening, with a disinfectant gargle. Us a nasal douche two or three times a day.

"Since we are uncertain of the primary cause of influenza, no form of inoculation can be guaranteed to protect against the disease itself. From what we know as to the lack of enduring protection after an attack, it might in any case be assumed that no vaccine could protect for more than a short period. But the chief dangers of influenza lie in its complications, and it is probable that much may be done to mitigate the severity of the affection and to diminish its mortality by raising the resistance of the body against the chief secondary infecting agents. No vaccines should be administered except under competent medical advice. No drug has as yet been proved to have any specific influence as a preventive of influenza. At the first feeling of illness or rise of temperature the patient should go to bed at once and summon his medical attendant. Relapses and complications are much less likely to occur if the patient goes to bed at once and remains there till all fever has gone for two or three days; much harm may be done by getting about too early. Chill and overexertion during convalescence are fruitful of evil consequences. The virus of influenza is very easily destroyed, and extensive measures of disinfection are not called for. Expectoration should be received, when possible, in a glazed receptacle in which is a solution of chlorid of ime. Discarded handkerchiefs should be immediately placed in disinfectant, or, if of paper, burned.

"The liability of the immediate attendants to infection may be materially diminished by avoiding inhalation of the patient's breath and particularly when he is coughing, sneezing, or talking. A handkerchief should be held before the mouth, and the head turned aside during coughing or sneezing. The risk of conveyance of infection by the fingers must be constantly remembered, and the hands should be washed at once after contact with the patient or with mucus from the nose or throat. Each case must be treated, as occasion demands, under the direction of the medical attendant. No drug has as yet been proved to have any specific curative effect on influenza, tho many are useful in guiding its course, and mitigating its symptoms. In the uncertainty of our present knowledge considerable hesitation must be felt in advising vaccine treatment as a curative measure.

"A period of enfeeblement following an attack of influenza should never be disregarded, as it is apt to mask the presence of other morbid conditions."

A gargle and nasal douche having the action recommended above can be easily prepared at home with hot water and Ma-oze Antiseptic Powder. For a gargle use two heaping teaspoonfuls to a pint of hot water and use as a gargle from two to six times a day.

For use as a nasal douche only use a level teaspoonful of Ma-oze Antiseptic Powder to a pint of hot water. If your work takes you out of doors use a nasal douche only at bedtime, unless ordered to do otherwise by your physician.

Here are a few suggestions from reports in our country, Dont get excited. Go to bed at the first sign of a cold and call your physician. Keep hands clean and away from mouth. Do not needlessly expose others. Keep yourself fit. You can get Ma-oze Antiseptic Powder from your druggist. It comes in three sizes 25, 50c and $1 packages. You will find the larger packages cheaper in the long run.

Ma-oze Antiseptic Powder has many daily uses besides those mentioned above. It should be in every home. Get a package to-day.

TRADING ON STOCK EXCHANGE HEAVY

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Revival of public interest was a factor of considerable sonsequence in today's strong ad broad stock market the trading assuming almost the largest dimension of any session thus far this year.

General Motors featured the automobile divisions at an extreme gain of six points, Chandler, Studebaker, Pierce Arrow, and Kelly Springfield tire also contributing to the strength of that group.

Pools were active in Sumatra Tobacco, tobacco products, Central Leather, American Locomotives, the most popular independent steels and U. S. Steel, the latter rising to 93, its maximum since thereduction of the common "extra" dividend.

Rails were slow to move, but rose sharply on a demand for Pacifics, coalers and several of the eastern trunk roads. Sales amounted to 800,000 shares. The bond market was irregular and dull, liberty and foreign issues holding steady. Total sales $9,775,000.

CORN MARKET AVERAGES HIGHER

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Corn averaged higher today, but profittaking by holders made the market react. Talk of possible removal of the Canadian import duty on oats was the chief bullish influence. Corn closed weak, 1¼c net lower to 1c advance, with May $1.22¾@$1.23 and July $1.18⅝@$1.18½. Oats finished ⅝@1½c down and provisions off 27c to $1. Advances in the corn market were closely associated with reports about a shortage of seed oats in Canada. It was said a large supply would have to be obtained in the United States and that the need was so acute that the Canadian government would remit the duty on such shipments. Bullish sentiment was emphasized by scantiness of arrivals at domestic primary centers and by lack of rural offerings.

The sharp upturns that ensued, eastern interests were free sellers and there was a consequent rapid dcline.

Oats simply duplicated the changes in corn. Provisions had no aggressive support.

GREAT SACRIFICE OF FRANCE FOR AMERICA
France has put 6 million of her 36 million population into the trenches and has poured out her life's blood for America and democracy. In addition we owe her a large debt of gratitude for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments which her peasants discovered and successfully used. The ingredients are now imported and sold by Geo. H. Mayr, leading Chicago chemist, under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Marvelous results are said to have been achieved by it here. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.. For sale by Coover & Shreve's East Side Drug Store.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made
Here's An Easy Way to Save $2, and Yet have the Best Cough Remedy You Ever Tried.
You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.
Into a pint bottle pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.
It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough— usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis asd bronchial asthma.
Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.
Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promtply refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Window Lighting and Display

The well lighted store window attracts the passerby, but ordinarily he has only time to take in the story of but one article, and there must be enough of that one article, to make an impression that will stick, be it toothpicks or rings, kitchen cabinets or hats--tell one story at a time and tell it well.

First then every display window must be effectively lighted in order to attract the passerby, and second the object displayed must be sufficiently striking to catch the fancy and make the impression that sticks.

Window display is but silent salesmanship, selling by means of object lessons, and to present the right appeal and convey the lesson intended a study of light effects must be made.

HOUSE LIGHTING

Every old wasteful carbon lamp should be discarded for the new Mazda — "Sunlight's Only Rival." These give better light and brighter light and are more economical. There's an Edison Mazda for every socket, for attics, bedrooms, living rooms and cellars—this means safety, comfort, convenience and contentment.

See Our Special Window Display This Week

We have made an especially comprehensive display of lamps and sockets which we want you to see. We will welcome the opportunity to show them to you, and to explain the proper and effective methods for house, store and window lighting — the famous Mazdas and the wonderful "Night Time - Daylight" globes.

SAYS PRICES WILL NOT BE LOWER

D. E. Sweeney the local dealer in brick and building materials returned a few days ago from Chicago where he attended session of the brick makers association and the Lumber Dealers.

There were meetings of the face brick and common brick manufacturers. The first named was held at the Edgewater hotel and the last named at the LaSalle.

The manufacture and sale of brick and market conditions were discussed fully at the meetings. Mr. Sweeney said yesterday that according to the manufacturers prices will not be lowered this year.

The manufacturers made it plain that they have already signed contracts with their employes at the old scale and this will necessitate the present level of prices being maintained. The same is true Mr. Sweeney says of lumber and other building materials. So if anyone is contemplating building they will have to wait another year unless they pay the present prices.

RAISE PENSIONS TO $1,000

Government of Canada Will be Asked by Delegation of Veterans.

As a result of the conference held by the provincial command G. W. Va., with two members of the pensions commission, a strong delegation is being sent to Ottawa to urge the Government to consider amending the pensions law.

There is no end to the discontent over the pensions given to soldiers' widows and families. The G. W. Va. are of the opinion that $1,000 full disability pension will dispel much of the trouble. Should the Government consider the increase all widows will be entitled to $800 per year instead of $480 as the present scale and each child an increase over the $8.00 per month now paid. It is also suggested that an appeal board be created in conjunction with the independent board, so that an impartial body of men may hear the cases for re-examination. — (The Toronto Daily Telegram.)
